Description:	South Indian Paintings firm run by Srividya is an art gallery for the art-lovers filled with Tanjore Paintings. She has undergone training in Santhanu's Chitra Vidyalaya before making these gift articles and gained 9 years of expertise in this field with a keen eye for creative works, arts and crafts right from childhood. Following her passion, she took an initiative of turning her endeavour into a business and it has made a great impact in the industry. Out of interest and curiosity, she underwent training on the same field and started the business in a small level initially and now is an entrepreneur with a turnover of 48 lacs.
